Then Let Us Sing

United Church Publishing House (UCPH) is excited to announce the website launch for Then Let Us Sing! (thenletussing.ca), an online music portal that will make all of the United Church's hymn resources available in one digital location, under one copyright licence.

Working with our partners from GIA (One License) and Hope Publishing Company, we are excited for this new initiative in worship planning, in time for the United Church's 100th anniversary year.
